261 Norwich Theatre Royal advertising for Access Officer

One of ADA's corporate members – and a favourite venue for touring describers – Norwich Theatre Royal is currently advertising for an Access Officer to take over from Matthew Piper, who is re-locating to Wales to become a freelance audio describer.

For full details of the post, including job description and application form, visit the theatre's website at: <http://ntr.org.uk/Jobs>

Closing date for applications: Wednesday 5 September 2018

Matthew was trained by ADA on a course run for Norwich Theatre Royal five years ago, and our good wishes go with him for his career in AD and to his successor in Norwich.
