

268 Park Theatre advertising for Access Coordinator

Park Theatre opened on 8 May 2013 in Finsbury Park, North London. Described as "a neighbourhood theatre with global ambition," it offers a mixed programme of new writing, classics, and revivals. In addition to the main auditorium seating 200, the building includes a 90-seat studio theatre, a rehearsal space and a Café Bar.

The venue is currently advertising for an Access Coordinator, as part of its 3-year, grant-funded programme to develop and expand its access services to their full potential. For full details, visit Park Theatre's website at: <https://www.parktheatre.co.uk/get-involved/jobs>

Applications by letter to reach the theatre by 10.00am on: Tuesday 16 October 2018

Note Pad is ADA's free e-bulletin – email office@audiodescription.co.uk to:

- post an item
- comment on items
- unsubscribe
- receive Note Pad in Word
- become a member of ADA
- donate to ADA

www.audiodescription.co.uk